The majority of the Legislators and the Governor ignored the facts from these groups and from Gov. Douglas and Tom Anderson as well as many other experts and people who know and care about what is best for Vermont and her citizens!

Former Governor Jim Douglas: "Legalization of Marijuana is not right for Vermont" .

Tom Anderson-Public Safety Commissioner (Vermont State Police Head)

"...based on my review of the research and based on my review of the studies that have been done on highway fatality deaths, that you can reach the conclusion that with the increased use of marijuana and the legalization of marijuana, there will be an increase in the roadway fatalities."
